

Deutsche Börse Capital Market Partner Support for Going and Being Public

Going public is a milestone for every company. This is where the advice of capital market experts is needed. Even after a successful IPO, the work continues. Benefit from the capital market expertise of Deutsche Börse Capital Market Partners. Through this network, stock exchange aspirants and listed companies find the perfect advisor for their going and being public: This includes IPO/IBO advice for going public and corporate finance, investor and public relations, legal and auditing, investment banking as well as designated sponsoring and research. A listing in Scale, the segment for small and medium-sized growth companies, requires the mandate of a CMP.
