

EU-regulated market: Prime Standard Tailor-made solution for equity financing

There are various ways which lead to the Frankfurt Stock Exchange: via initial public offering (IPO), listing (without capital increase), SPAC, Direct Listing and dual listing. Companies seeking a listing in the EU-regulated market may choose between Prime Standard for shares and General Standard for shares. Issuers in the regulated market meet high standards that apply throughout the EU. In this way, the Regulated Market is above all geared to large and medium-sized corporations that are able to meet these standards and wish to attract national and international investors.

In addition to the statutory minimum requirements of the EU-regulated market, companies in Prime Standard must comply with highest transparency requirements, both in German and English. Further follow-up obligations arising from admission e.g. submission of the quarterly statement or analysts' conference once a year
